

"Spinoza's Critique of Scripture" March 14th UU Service

Professor David Williams will present on "Spinoza's Critique of Scripture" at the March 14th UU Service. Benedict de Spinoza was an infamous 17th century Jew, heretic, and exile. We will explore specifically how Spinoza's reading of Scripture contributed to this reputation, and how it ultimately paved the way for his radical doctrines of free conscience and free speech.

David Williams teaches at UWSP in the departments of Political Science and Philosophy, specializing in political theory.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located at 3116 Algoma Street, Stevens Point, WI. Services and religious education for children both start at 10:00 AM. Childcare is available during the service. The UU Fellowship is dedicated to the acceptance and participation of persons in the full range of our Fellowship and society without regard to race, age, sex, disability, sexual identity or orientation, or national origin.
